

RESEARCH ON ORGANISED CRIME: METHODOLOGICAL STRATEGIES

23 OCTOBER 2024

NAGOYA UNIVERSITY ASIAN LEGAL EXCHANGE PLAZA
CONFERENCE ROOM 221

SESSION 1
10:30-
12:00

METHODOLOGY:
USING TRIAL
DOCUMENTS

Prof Dai Yokomizo
Nagoya University
Opening Remarks

Niles Breuer
University of Oxford
Mapping Drug Smuggling
Networks in Japan: A Social Network Analysis of Trial
Documents

Dr Zora Hauser
University of Oxford
On Trial: Risks & Opportunities
of Understanding Organised Crime through Court
Documents

Dr Qiaoyu Luo
University of Oxford
Doing Research with Judgment Data: Objectives,
Coding Strategies & Potential
Pitfalls

SESSION 2
13:00-
14:30

CRIMINOLOGY:
ORGANISED CRIME
IN THE UK, ITALY &
JAPAN

Shane Roberts
Keele University
Clear-Hold-Build: A New Partnership Approach to Tackle Serious & Organised
Crime within Communities

Prof Francesco Calderoni
Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan
The Presence of Italian
Mafias in the World 2000-
2020: Countries, Activities &
Change

Dr Andrea Giovannetti
Australian Catholic University
Trust Thy Neighbour: The Effect of Yakuza Offices in the Neighbourhood

SESSION 3
14:45-
16:15

METHODOLOGY: QUALITATIVE INTERVIEWS

Dr Emilia Ziosi
University of Oxford
Navigating Online Interviews:
Challenges, Benefits & Best Practices

Jack Warburton
University of Oxford
Difficult Conversations: The Challenges of Researching
Organised Crime in the UK

Dr Martina Baradel
University of Oxford
Trust Issues: Doing Fieldwork with Active Members of Organised Crime

Prof Sean McGinty
Nagoya University
Closing Remarks

Moderator: Prof David Green